

Dennis Wayne Massie

November 7, 1941 - October 19, 2020

In Loving memory your wings were ready, but our hearts were not. On Monday, October 19th, 2020 Dennis Wayne Massie went home to be with the Lord.

He was born in Wilmington, North Carolina on November 7, 1941, and was raised in Virginia, he attended Fork Union Military Academy and the University of Richmond to study history. Upon graduation, he pursued a career in mortgage banking in Maryland. After retirement he enjoyed golf, playing cards and visiting Civil War battlefields. He was a refined country gentleman, always smiling, with a great sense of humor.

Later in life he met Mary (Joey) Wagner and they resided as loving companions for the last 12 years in Virginia. He is survived by daughters Debbie Mackay and Lisa Poole and son-in-law Raymond Poole; granddaughters Melissa Broadrup and Brittany Poole and grandsons-in-law Ward Broadrup and Levi Sellers and grandsons Ryan Poole and Steven Mackay and granddaughter-in-law Taylor Leasure Poole. He also had two great granddaughters, Summer Nagy and Sedona Sellers.

Contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society.

Tribute Wall

ST

“ StevenKimball lit a candle in memory of
Dennis Wayne Massie

---

StevenKimball - December 04, 2020 at 09:26 PM

MB

“ Dennis was my great friend and golf coach. I think we only played 4 or 5 times together but I learned more from him than anyone else in the past. He indeed was a true southern gentleman and a knowledgeable historian. I hope his next golf round is a par 72 and his next poker hand is a Royal Flush. He will be greatly missed by those who loved him!
RIP, Dennis

M.J. Brickach

---

Mary Jane Brickach - November 09, 2020 at 05:27 PM

NL

I saw you opening my room last night it was you and I rember it's almost a year now since you left. The reason why I give this post for you. Thank you for being such a good dear virtual friend and the visit reminding me. You showed how good you are. A decent and respectful person. Missing you a lot, Dennis.

Be happy with HIM

---

Nel B. Leuterio - June 21, 2021 at 10:09 PM