“ Papaw was one of a kind, always full of sarcasm and wit, always making me laugh. I spent the last 16 years getting to know him pretty well since he was my precious boys grandfather. I will cherish the memories watching countless westerns and so many repeats of Monk that I prob could recite them word for word. Drinking and dancing in the shed, long summer nights sitting on the porch will forever be etched in my memory. He loved watching all the boys grow up and was so proud of each one of his kids. I will miss him forever and I’m so grateful for all the years Jacob got to spend with him. Sending prayers to Nana and the kids and all the grandkids who loved him so much.
