

Diana Lewis Feldman

October 12, 1952 - January 27, 2022

Diana (Lewis) Feldman, 69, Passed away on Thursday, January 27, 2022, at her home in Bristow, Virginia. Born October 12, 1952 In New York City, Diana lived in New Rochelle and Mahopac, N.Y. for many years. During this period she met and married her beloved husband, Barry Feldman; worked as a teaching assistant for the City of New York; and graduated with honors from Lehman College.

In 2003 Diana and her family relocated to Bristow, where she earned her real estate license and embarked on her outstanding career as an agent. Diana had a true passion for her business and for the many clients she helped. Her unparalleled compassion and commitment are reflected in the gratitude of those who had the privilege of working with her.

In addition to Barry, her husband of 35 years, Diana is survived by her son, Brian Feldman, 32, also of Bristow, and siblings Stephanie (and Ronald) Gordon of New York, N.Y. ; Fredric Lewis (and Jennie MacDonald) of Denver, Colo.; Abigail Lewis (and Paul Andrews) of Ashland, Ore.; and Felicity (and Charles) Coe of Gainesville, VA. She also leaves behind many devoted nieces and nephews and a wide circle of friends who will miss her warmth, enthusiasm, and generosity.

A Celebration of Diana's life and spirit will be held in the spring of 2022. In lieu of flowers, the family asks that memorial donations be sent to the DC/MD/VA Chapter of the ALS Foundation (<http://als.org>) or Capital Caring Health (<https://www.capitalcaring.org/>).

“ Diana was a bright spirit - welcoming, open and generous. All those long talks we had, all the sharing. She brought so many people together at gatherings at the home she shared with Barry .. all the laughter, all the good food, Diana was such a connector .. positive and upbeat, the laughter. I know she is free, and I will miss her! I imagine she is still doing great work here, this time untethered! Love and miss you Diana.
