Megan (Josh), and Ashley (Larry); her son Brett (Jessica); her two grandchildren, Logan and Jackson, her 3rd grandchild due in November; her brother, Bill Aurelius, and her nieces and nephew, Leah, Michelle, and Adam. She is adored by her family and will be missed every single day.

“ My condolences to the Pyles family for the loss of a wife, mother, and friend.
My children and I knew Diane because our children were on the same swim team many years ago, and interacted frequently.
While I hadn't seen Diane since that time, I will remember Diane as a lovely woman, very caring and warm.
Again, my sorrow for your loss.

“ I worked with Diane for the entirety of my career at FedEx. She and I had many conversations, most of which I remember to this day, as we often crossed paths in our travels. Such a caring, warm, and empathetic person! The world is a lesser place without her...we will all miss her dearly.

“ Diane - the laughter, the shopping expeditions, the dining and cocktails - you were always up for adventure and merriment, not only adding an extra element of fun and giggles to whatever was going on, but also being incredibly supportive to all your friends. Life is richer for having known you Diane, and although you were so suddenly taken from us you have left behind wonderful memories for a lifetime. Deep condolences to the family. RIP dear friend.
