June 9, 1953 - June 24, 2016

Dianne E. Fallon, 63, of Washington, VA, passed away peacefully in her home, Friday, June 24, surrounded by her loved ones. Born in Toledo, Ohio in 1953 to the late Robert and Rachel Amon. She moved to Falls Church, VA in 1954 with her family, and graduated from Falls Church High School in 1972. After high school she married her sweetheart, Patrick Fallon, husband of 37 years. She was a talented artist and expressed her talents through her job as a hairdresser and through painting. She supported her community as a vocational teacher at Chantilly High School in the cosmetology department. Her students remember her as a mentor. Her kindness and selflessness motivated her to make a difference. She was co-founder of the IIIB's Bosom Buddy Basket Foundation, dedicated to helping breast cancer patients. Her fun-loving kind heart drew people to her and gave her the nick name "Queen Bee" among her friends. She is survived by her loving husband Patrick Fallon, daughter Kelly Fallon of Ashburn; son Robert and his wife Leah Fallon and two granddaughters, Cadence and Adeline Fallon all of Leesburg, VA; her two sisters: Debra Armstrong of St. Petersburg, FL and Cindy Ravella of Manassas; and other family members and countless friends. A celebration of life will be held on Thursday, 6-8 at Pierce Funeral Home, 9609 Center Street, Manassas, VA. Graveside Services will be held on Friday 2 PM at Stonewall Memory Gardens, Manassas, VA. “ What I remember most about Dianne as we were growing up and I was friends with Cindy is that she hated when the two of us went into her closet and picked out something to wear. She would be yelling at us to never wear her clothes again but did we listen....NO....then one day she liked one of my outfits and asked if she could borrow it and of course I said yes. Since that time on she never had a problem with us wearing her clothes again. Actually she was really cool about it as well as driving us all over Falls Church until we could drive. Always had great times at the Amon house.
