“ I enjoyed Sunday morning classes with Ranny and will miss his insightful comments and love for the Lord.

I am confident that Ranny heard "Well done good & faithful servant" as he was welcomed home.

“ Ranny was a special man, who always had a positive outlook and who lived his life as God would have us all live. He was a joy to talk to and his smile and laugh always put me at ease. I will miss him very much. My prayers are with the family and we all know that Ranny walks with God. We are all better people for having known him.
