“ Your mother was like another mother to us (especially Bob who knew her since he was a little boy). We spent a lot of time with your family and your mom always treated us all as if we were her own children. We will never forget all those Thanksgiving dinners and all the love she had for everyone in our family. She was truly blessed with a loving husband and a beautiful family. I was always able to talk to her about anything when we visited. She surely will be missed. Our prayers are with you all. A candle was lite at our church yesterday for her and we will have a mass said but we know she is in heaven because was a wonderful and kind woman who would do anything for anyone. Love to all, Jo and Bob
