HE

“ I missed seeing you that one last time. I have only warmest thoughts and kindest memories of you. Although you may have, or not, known who you were talking to...I remember our last conversation on the phone and you were your usual sweet, kind, pleasant self. It was hard to know what you were struggling with at the time since it was not present in your words. I know your spirit will always be close to Jeannie, watching her and trying to comfort her as best as you can. You will be missed.
