“ Anni and Family.
I am very saddened by Don's sudden departure from us. We had a long and fruitful association since we first met and worked together at Vint Hill in the early 70's and again in Germany later that decade. We then met again in the Washington area as Army retirees and Beltway Bandits and as members of the ASA Alumni Association. In all, it was a great 30 years.
Farewell, my friend.

“ *Anni and Linda and family,
I could never fully express how sorry we are and how much we are going to miss Don. We always enjoyed him so much. He was such a pleasure to have around.
Bill and I are so sad that this has happened.
Our deepest sympathy goes out to you and your family.*

“ I was so saddened to hear about Donald's death. I remember him well from the Freedom Center pool, where we shared lots of laughs (and I got to practice my high school German) while water walking.

He was a gentle soul and will be greatly missed.

*All the best,
Liz*
