“ I grew up at the opposite end of Ridgeway Bud was my sweetheart. I can't believe he is gone. I know he laid his hands on a lot of lives I hope his memories are always strong. One of my favorite memories is when we were either 14 or 15 meeting at the corner of Maraposia after we had a huge snow storm it was the middle of the night and we just played in the snow young and care free. He always walked me home and gave me so much love and affection. He had such a sweet soul if you ever got to know it.
