“ I have so many wonderful memories of Uncle Donny. I would have to say my favorite were of spending many holiday meals and get-togethers listening to him and Jon tell stories of their wild days as they would constantly pick on each other. I can't express how much I will miss him and those times. I have been very fortunate to get to know and love him.

“ Uncle Donny was a good man I will never forget. Because I was a military brat, (my parents are Ray and Barbara (Bobbie) Field)), we didn't live close except for a few years in Maryland when I was a kid. It seemed like Mom was always on the phone with Donny or her other brother and sisters. Hard to say what is the best memory. I remember one year when we took Mom and Dad on a trip to the East Coast and we stopped at Gettysburg in an RV park. The RV door was open and we were looking out when this “old guy” was driving by real slow. He had VA tags on his old truck. He drove by again, and this time, I was watching for him (pickups like his were not common in RV parks), and I realized that it was Donny. It had been a long time since I had seen him (and he had never seen our RV, but our Texas tags gave us away). It was awesome, he just came on in and we had a great visit (Dad, Mom, Scooter, and myself). As mother's dementia has gotten worse, I had more opportunities to visit with Donnie. I was the go between for his many bets with Mom over the Dallas Cowboys and Washington Redskins. I will prayer for him and will always miss him.

“ Donnie was a great guy! I could never forget the 1st time I met him.....it was in the spring of 1968 when we were on strike for two weeks. We were both assigned to the same picket site, the PBX warehouse/office in MD. We walked that line every day all day. Donnie never hesitated to put his body between the entry gate and every truck attempting a delivery!

“ Donnie was a friend to all ... and such a warm-hearted gentleman with a kind hello to all at the Philomont General Store and around the neighborhood. His stories and creative solutions were epic. There's a trail ride in heaven now ... and Donnie is there, making sure the path. We will miss you.
