“ Don was always a bright spot in the mornings at broad run . He always had great stories and on mornings when he wasn't there for one reason or another, I felt I was missing something. While I didn't get there every day, he always remembered what coffee I wanted and always said thank you and have a nice day. He will be greatly missed. Rest well my friend. ~Scott Olson

“ Don was always a wonderful, friendly, smiling face who would brighten up what always seemed to be far too early mornings out at Broad Run. I always enjoyed our morning chats. He will be greatly missed.

“ I would like to show my personal appreciation for Don for his years of service to VRE's passengers. Don was a good man, a friendly and engaging personality who really loved our riders and being there every morning to help them with their commute. A bright and sunny face to starts folks day, what more could one ask for.

I'm miss our talks Don, but I am the better man for having been there to enjoy them for so many years. It was a pleasure working with you, and knowing you.

Rest in Peace, my friend.
