“ My deepest condolences to the family and friend of Kevin. I knew Kevin as one of his Chef instructors at Johnson & Wales University. I remember his culinary talent and his lite hearted personality well. Those are the memories of Kevin that I will keep in my heart. Once again my deepest sympathies to those closet to Kevin.

“ My condolences to family of Kevin Weeks. Death is always untimely in that it interrupts relationships at work, at home and elsewhere. It is particularly difficult to handle in one who is in the prime of life. There is hope offered in the Bible. Revelation 21:3,4 promises that death will be done away with and Acts 5:28,29 promises a resurrection of loved ones. I hope that thought is encouraging. Again, my sincere sympathies.

“ We didn't really know Kevin except through the eyes of Val and Ray. From that view we saw him first as a good kid, later as a good man, and always as someone really worth knowing. Our hearts and prayers go out to each of you who knew him best.
