“ *Sal,
I was sadden to hear of your loss. I wanted to come to the viewing on Tuesday night but the Dr would not allow me. Please know that Susan and I will keep you in our prayers.*

“ I will miss Donna so much. She was a light of hope for all of us and didn't take anything for granted. She was a fighter and took whatever obstacle in her life head on. I was blessed to have shared an office with her and will truly miss the conversations we had.

“ Dear Amalfitano Family, I would like to extend my sincere condolences to each of you. Although we are not personally acquainted, we share the pain of losing a loved in death. And when it happens the thought of never again being able to talk to, laugh with, or hold our loved ones is most difficult to bear. A key to enduring this suffering is knowing that the Bible teaches that "there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous" (Acts 24;15), our loved ones sleeping in the graves will soon come forth and live forever under peaceful conditions right here on earth. (John 5;28,29; Rev. 21;3,4; Psalm 83;18) While grief at the loss of Donna is great, joy at receiving Donna in the resurrection will be greater. (Mark 5;42) May you find comfort as you read God's loving promises during this difficult time and the days to come. Take care,
