“ We remember the first time we met Doris and Clarence in 1980 on their way from Manassas to Osaki's. They stopped to see us in Shoreview, Minnesota. Every time after that when they came to Minnesota they would stop and see us. What we will miss most is talking to Doris after every Viking game and Clarence telling us one of his silly jokes.

We send our deepest sympathy to Clarence and the family. We are truly going to miss Doris. She was a very special lady.

May the Perpetual Light shine upon her and may she Rest In Peace.

With our Love and Stmpathy,

“ I first met Doris when she stopped by my office of Long & Foster. Our professional relationship soon developed into a sincere friendship. It really did not matter to me whether she wanted to look at new construction, or just talk about the Vikings; she was quick at sharing recipes, wild rice and chicken soup. And also shared her worries about everyone she loved. Doris and Clarence have the biggest heart on the planet and I was saddened to hear about Doris' passing. May she rest in peace.

“ Cousin was truly a Vikings Fan. Her middle name is "Freda" after our Grandmother, whom I never met to remember (I was just 2 when Olga Fredericka died) So one can see that Doris' middle name is the nickname of our Grandmother, but none of us knew the 'real' name of Grandmother until geneology searches. But Doris would tell me Grandmother died on a very cold day in December. No one else shared the memories as Doris. Of course, her dad and mom, Garrett and Annie were my favorites, ha ha. I stayed at their farm with them and cousin Donnie a lot and treasured those times.

There are no appropriate words at this time but look upon her life with a smile and the only tears be of joy...joy for the great life she had with you all and for the joy she brought to others.

“ Sympathy to Clarence, Rick and Debbie. Not only was Doris my relative but was a dear friend. I will miss her weekly phone calls and sometimes even daily. We both loved watching the Vikings and calling each other during half time or after the game sometimes happy and sometimes upset. Rest in piece dear friend.

“ Doris's loyalty to Prince William Hospital was always a priority in her life. She was a very skilled secretary, could type faster than anyone I have ever known. And, yes the Vikings are now getting a super cheerleader's voice from above! Wishing Clarence, Rick and Debbie peace and the knowledge Doris lived a long dedicated life. Sincerely, Katie Swenson
