“ I think of Grandma Hill every day, I've always adored her cat Zoey and I hope she's glad we took her home. I'm sad I didn't get to talk to Grandma more but I'm glad we have Zoey to remember her.

“ Dottie has been a wonderful neighbor to Joe and I for many years. We've looked out for one another over the years during our travels away from home. She was a sweet friend, RIP lady. I will miss you.

“ Hi, Dottie - I'm sorry Bill & I didn't get a chance to say goodbye, but you always were one to get things done do matter what the chore:) I like to imagine in this case that you're keeping a date with family & friends who've gone before, including my Mom to whom you were such a great neighbor, friend, & fellow adventurer. For the better part of 50 years, you've been a source of wisdom, wry humor, intelligent discussions & observations, neighborly news, & solace as needed. I will sincerely miss you for all of that & more, but most of all, I'll miss your love of life & indomitable spirit. Rest easy now, my friend. ”

To Dottie's family, we wish to convey our sincere condolences for your loss; your Mom & those of her generation are truly "the greatest".
