“ Daddy, I miss you more than I can begin to say. I hope that you know how much of an impact you had on my life. You were there whenever I needed you. You could make anything and fix anything that anyone wanted you to. I always believed there was nothing you couldn't do. You were taken away much too soon, but I know that this is something I would have never been ready for. I love you more than I can say and I will hold your memory close to my heart forever.
