

Douglas Henry Hewitt

January 21, 1945 - January 18, 2026

Douglas Hewitt, born on January 21, 1945, passed away leaving behind a legacy of service, dedication, and deep love for his family.

Douglas was a devoted husband to his wife, Gail Hewitt, and a loving father to his children, Sandy and Kevin. He was a proud grandfather to Courtney, Ryan, Caitlan, Alex, and Ian, and a cherished great-grandfather to Colton. His family was the center of his life, and he took great pride in their accomplishments and happiness.

Douglas proudly served his country in the United States Marine Corps during the Vietnam War. For his bravery and valor, he was awarded the Bronze Star of Valor, an honor that reflected his courage, integrity, and commitment to those he served alongside.

Following his military service, Douglas built a long and respected career with GEICO, where he worked for 25 years as an insurance adjuster and instructor. Known for his knowledge, professionalism, and willingness to mentor others, he made a lasting impact on colleagues and students alike.

In addition to his military and professional accomplishments, Douglas was deeply involved in the sport he loved. He served as a football official with the Northern Virginia Football Officials Association for 50 years, earning the respect and admiration of players, coaches, and fellow officials. In recognition of his decades of dedication and exemplary service to the game, Douglas was inducted into the NVFOA Hall of Fame—an honor that reflected his fairness, integrity, and passion for mentoring others.

Douglas will be remembered for his strength, sense of duty, and unwavering devotion to family and country. His life of service and love leaves a lasting impression on all who knew him, and he will be deeply missed.
