Dureda Ann Brumback
(Dee Dee)

Dureda Ann Brumback requested to go home for the remainder of her End-of-Life Care.

She requested that the house be filled with love, joy and laughter.

She was cared for, as a Queen should be, until her last breath on this earth; with the home buzzing with life as she desired.

At 12:16 A.M., Sunday July 7th, 2024 she went home to be with The Lord.

She passed away at her home in Catlett, Virginia surrounded by her children and grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband , Barry G. Eby, her parents Richard Reiley Brumback, Sr. and Thelma Welsh Brumback and by her sister in law Brenda Glass Brumback.

Dureda Ann (Dee Dee) Brumback born January 26th, 1942 in Washington D.C. to her late parents Richard Reiley Brumback, Sr. and Thelma Welsh Brumback.

Dureda Ann was a native of Manassas, Virginia; resided in Catlett, Virginia since 1976. She was a graduate of Osbourn High School, Manassas, Virginia; Class of 1959. She was a graduate of Shepherd (College) University, Shepherdstown, West Virginia and Liberty University, Lynchburg, Virginia.

She was a public-school teacher in Chambersburg, Pennsylvania and in Prince William County, Virginia.

She was a Realtor and Associate Broker in The Prince William Realtor Association, Virginia.

She was active in her local church as Church Secretary, Church Treasurer, Adult Sunday School Teacher and Women's Ministry President.

Dureda had a tremendous love for God, family, friends, books, education, music, travel, laughter and she was an extraordinary pianist.

Dureda Ann requested that her life be celebrated and that her living testimony be shared.

Dureda was steadfast in her faith in Jesus Christ; her final wish has a "P.S."

which states, "My greatest prayer for my friends and my entire family is that they accept Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior so we can all meet again and spend eternity together. Amen."

The last book she read, "Christian Theology, By Millard Erickson."

A quote from the last book she was reading states on page 269; "In Hinduism, reality is Brahma, the whole, of which we are individual parts or Atman. One does not relate to reality by turning outward, as to an individual person. One rather withdraws, inward, through a process of contemplation. The aim of this process is to lose one's own individual identity and self-consciousness, to be in effect absorbed into the whole. Nirvana is the stage at which all individual striving ceases, and one becomes simply at rest."

The Holy Bible simplifies this action found in Psalms 46:10; "Be still and know that I Am God."

Dureda Ann is survived by her brother; Richard Reiley Brumback, Jr. and his sons Erich and Jacob, her son; Dean P. Eby, her daughter; Christy L. (Joseph Jenkins) Munday-Liptak, her prior son-in-law: Greg A. Liptak, her step children; Charlene E. Jarvis, John G. (Julie) Munday, Charles E.
