“ Hey you. I still think about you often - you're still with me and in my heart. Over the years I've managed to finally meet a few goals that we used to talk about, or even joke about when we were younger. I wish you were here to share them with because you'd be so proud, and no one else would understand like you would. That same feeling when you showed me the pullups you did after years of practicing. I was so proud. I love you so much

“ I met Ebony at a support group & we became sisters immediately following. She was really honestly there whenever I needed her. An angel, truly. It was always an adventure. From the “surprise I'm outside your house” visits to sitting doing absolutely nothing.. I cherish every single time my life was blessed by her energy & presence. You'll live on forever Eb.

“ I will always remember Ebony for the wonderful person she was and her great smile. She had the power of "Positive Presence" that made you feel good being around her. It is special to have shared with her during our time together at the Ryan Center at Langley Air Force Base. Her last communication with me was a holiday greeting card in me in December 2018; I will cherish it forever... We will meet again in heaven... John Wilson

“ There is no memory of Ebony that isn't filled with her laugh or huge smile, even in basic training she was full of happiness. The love she offered everyone was incomparable and I feel I've lost my sister. I pray for peace of mind for her family. I love you Eb you will be in my heart and mind everyday.

“ Ebony, it's hard to think about you really not being here anymore. You had a huge heart, and you were more than willing to help anyone in need. You had a personality and smile that would literally light up my entire work center every time you entered it. You made a lot of my days brighter, just by being you. I'll always remember you and what you meant to me. I'll hold our memories close. I hope you are at peace. I'll miss and love you forever.

“ Ebony,

There are so many things I wish I could say to you. The most important thing is that I love you and miss you like crazy. You always made me smile and laugh the hardest. I will never forget our conversations at work, watching you dance and make everyone laugh around you. I loved laughing at your faces while you tended to a customer on the phone! The faces you make lol, crazy girl. Thank you for blessing me with a beautiful friendship. You got the best of me. I love you, babe
