“ Edgar was probably 18 or 19 years old when he worked at Merchant's Firestone and would sometimes drive me to Temple School in Old Town Manassas, for pre-school. I would cry and throw fits and refuse to get out of the car to go inside. Edgar would be so patient and kind, trying to talk me into getting out of the car and going inside to school. He was definitely too young to know how to handle a strong-willed three or four year old. Mostly he managed to talk me into going inside! Years later when I was older, Edgar always reminded me how difficult it was to start his day when I was So Upset. I have always had a soft spot in my heart for him. I remember his sweet big smile, and his special way with words. There is a special place in heaven for him. My thoughts and prayers are with the family at this very difficult time. May God Bless Each One of You.
Sincerely, Carol Merchant Kirby

Thank you for the memory, Carol...it made me smile. Dad thought the world of you, Linda, Wicky and your family. I always enjoyed his stories of each one of you. I, too, have many memories being with your Dad, Mom, Wick, Clark and I. God Bless all of you.

“ Words are always difficult when sadness is so deep, so we share words from this poem during your grief:

*We little knew the day that
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.*

*It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone.
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.*

*You left us peaceful memories.
Your love is still our guide,
And though we cannot see you
You are always at our side.*

*Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same,
but as God calls us one by one
the chain will link again.*

All our love and prayers, JR and Gail
