

Edgardo Peregrino

September 25, 1952 - February 19, 2023

Edgardo Manalac Peregrino, age 70, of South Riding, VA, passed away on Sunday, February 19, 2023, after a 7-month battle with pancreatic cancer. His wife Delilah, of 48 years was at his side.

He was born in Kawit, Cavite, Philippines on September 25, 1952, to Ceferino and Corazon Peregrino. He immigrated to the United States in 1974 and lived in Dallas, Texas for a short time before settling and retiring in northern Virginia after 30 plus years of service with the United States Postal Service.

He loved music, particularly the Beatles and praise/worship music. He was also a musician and played the guitar, drums, and specialized in audio/visual in service to his prayer community for many years. Other interests included DIY home improvement, working many projects on his own home and of friends in need. During retirement he enjoyed traveling on cruises and vacationing back and forth from the Philippines and the US.

He is survived by his wife Delilah (age 71), sons Richard (age 46) and spouse Aimee, and Paul (age 43) and spouse Abby. Grandchildren, Jocel (age 22), Vivian (age 19), Amber (age 17), Phillip (age 12), Elijah (age 9) and Noah (age 7). Siblings – Nenita Peregrino Vidal (Dayton, Ohio), Ernesto Manalac Peregrino (Tokyo, Japan) and many nieces and nephews.

Celebration of Life Memorial Mass will take place on Saturday, March 4, 2023, at 12:00 PM at St. Veronica Catholic Church, 34460 Centreville Road, Chantilly, Virginia 20151

In lieu of flowers memorial contributions can be made to: Delilah Peregrino, 25964 Donovan Drive, South Riding, VA 20152.

Previous Events

Funeral Mass

MAR 4. 12:00 PM (ET)

St. Veronica Catholic Church
3460 Centreville Road
Chantilly, VA 20151

Tribute Wall

“ Sorry for your loss Dia. Condolences! ”

Priscilla Chaney - March 04, 2023 at 02:55 AM