“ I never met Edna, but what I did know of her was through her sister Beulah. There can't be a greater witness of one's life then when shared by someone who deeply loved them. My condolences to her family and friends. Her love will shine on in the memory of all who knew and loved her.

“ I am truly heartbroken at the loss of such a wonderful and loving person. Her generosity knew no boundaries. Always loving, always caring. You knew when you spoke with her she was not only listening, but hearing you as well. I met Edna through my friendship with Rena in middle school and will be forever grateful that she gave me my best friend in the world. How many people do you know who would let a group of crazy high school girls practically build a homecoming float in their living room? It's easy to see why Randy and Rena turned out to be such wonderful people. I'm sure she and Rena are rejoicing at being together once again.

I am heartbroken that illness is keeping me from attending the services today. Randy, please know that you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.

Rest in peace Edna, you will be truly missed by many!

“ When God blessed me 49 years ago by bringing Rena Lucas into my life, He also blessed me with an incredible role model in Mrs. Lucas. She showed me what devotion to God and family look like on a daily basis. As a single mom, Mrs. Lucas - to this day I struggle to call her 'Edna,' - was fiercely determined to raise her 2 young children to become God-fearing, responsible, hard-working, devoted, loving adults, which she achieved. Other than a time when Rena and I were in middle school and Mrs. Lucas slipped on ice and had a bad break, I don't recall Mrs. Lucas ever taking time off work. I don't recall Mrs. Lucas ever complaining about anything. What I do recall is her smile and her laugh, and how she always welcomed me in her home. And how she always put others first. And how she so selflessly shared Rena with our family, never bristling when Rena referred to my parents as 'Ma and Dad Perdue.' Rest now with Jesus and Rena and all your loved ones in Heaven, Mrs. Lucas. I just know God has said, 'Well done my good and faithful servant. Welcome Home.'

“ It is so hard to say goodbye to those who have touched our lives so deeply. My Aunt Edna was truly remarkable. She was without a doubt the most positive person I've ever met. She had some very difficult times in her life, but she truly understood forgiveness and always moved forward in great faith. Her "mustard seed" was huge! She could encourage me and others, like no other person. I would talk with her for long periods of time and we would share our news and our struggles. She was the most positive person. After talking with her, one always felt ready to face whatever was challenging one at the time. She shared stories of her days working in the White House, like accidentally causing a President to be "pushed to the ground" by Secret Service, when she reached out to shake his hand, and knowing when Nixon was going to resign the day before the rest of the world knew. She couldn't tell, and that was a difficult secret to keep. Over the last 10 years, she shared news of her children, Randy, Cindy and Rena, and her wonderful grandchildren, Matt and Katie. She was truly devoted to them. Conversations always included the latest news on all her family members, and she always wanted to know all about mine. Her positive attitude, cheerful voice and giant sized capacity to love others touched my heart over and over again. I will greatly miss hearing her soft, almost breathless voice, and that always so joyful and caring heart. I am so blessed to have had her in my life! I thank God for her and know that her joy is complete as she walks with Jesus! I am looking forward to seeing her again, and I know she will want to be one of the first to welcome us home when it is our turn to be with Jesus. I love you, Aunt Edna!

“ You were a special sister and person Edna. We had a lot of wonderful times together especially on all of our summer vacations which I will always cherish. We shared a love of reading and always had a good laugh together when I got the opportunity to point out to you that you were the "oldest" sister and I was the "baby". You will never be forgotten.

“ Edna, loving sister, best friend. Many wonderful memories of our adventures throughout our lives, from driving my first car, trips with our children growing up, our daily phone calls, and our frequent summer vacations in most recent years. You were loved by all who knew you. I will miss you immensely, but your spirit will be with me forever.

“ My brother Matt and I were so incredibly blessed to have had Grammy in our lives as closely as she was all these years. She was the ultimate example of how God ordained us to live- in selfless love, grace, and service. She was the pure embodiment of all that is kind and joyful in this world. Grammy took pleasure out of the little things, most of us don't even stop to acknowledge. She showed patience and forgiveness in everything. She loved fiercely and unconditionally. She is one of the many women in my family who have showed me what it means to be strong, independent, and proud. Her devotion to her family, faith in God, and patriotism for her country knew no bounds. Andrew and I can never tell you enough how blessed we were to share our wedding with you in your final days. I thank God every night for giving me this one last gift.

Grammy, we miss you terribly, but love you always. Rest peacefully, and say hello to Rere for us. We find peace knowing you're together again.

*Love Always,
Katie*

“ It was always such a pleasure to visit with Edna. I have fond memories of visiting her and her family as a child. She was always so welcoming and loving at every visit. One memory that still makes me chuckle is how her parakeet would fly around the living room and land on her head! Occasionally I got to talk to her when she would call my mother, and it was like no time had ever gone by. I always admired her for her strength and ability to weather the storms of life. She will be missed.

Wishing you peace and comfort, Randy and Beulah, and the rest of her family.

“ Edna Lucas, or Grammy, as my sister and I affectionately called her, was one of the most loving people I've ever known. Through my life, she was a stable presence, preaching love, compassion and the importance of family. Thinking back on our time together, I'll never forget how she carried herself. When we would visit, Grammy held my sister and I accountable to behave in a positive way, while also having fun. Every time we were together, we always found things to talk and laugh about.

I will always miss her Christmas cookies (but not as much as my Dad will), giving her a call on my way home from work, her 4:45 calls on Sunday afternoon after watching the Redskins lose at 1, her food having to be "Edna hot," and her fantastic laugh.

Rest in peace Grammy, until we meet again.

“ So sorry for your loss. Heaven has gained another angel. Edna was one of the best instructors I ever had and she was much more than that. She imparted wisdom that I have carried with me for 37 years after suffering a tragic loss. May she rest in paradise knowing she has a band of saints praying for her and the family.

“ *We so enjoyed visiting with Edna during our recent trips to Virginia. She embraced us and our children as family from our first meeting so many years ago. She loved her family with all her heart and Randy, Cindy, Matt, and Katie returned that love with your care and attention throughout her lifetime. We should all strive for that kind of love and attention from our family members. We're sorry to not be at the service in person, but we'll definitely be there in spirit. “ My Mother was the consummate ambassador of love. While she had only two biological children she was Mom to countless others. Raised from humble beginnings, she accomplished much in her lifetime and never tired of reaching out to help others that were less fortunate. The place that she holds in the hearts of all her family will never be forgotten

Edna was very dear to me. Spending time together would always include her Family. Our last conversation was about Katherine wedding. Edna always had a sense of style, and that her Red slippers was the talk of the wedding. I loved her and what she brought to my life. Rest In Peace my dear friend.
