“ I was sadden to hear of my aunt Edna Peel's death. We had lost contact many years ago after my mom's death. Edna was a very kind and loving person who was always willing to go the "Extra Mile" for everybody. We had many great and wonderful times growing up that we will remember as we get older. Thank you for those great times and beingt apart of our family. You will be missed but we will always know that you are with the Lord. Please tell mom and dad as you are entering the gates of heaven "Hello and we love you" and best of all the whole family is together again. Love you always Enda and many years of happiness.
