October 1, 1962 - July 22, 2016

Eduardo Tremols

Beloved husband, father, and son Eduardo Tremols, 53, died Friday, July 22, 2016, at his Gainesville home.

Eddy worked for Bayer Pharmaceuticals for 25 years and was a member of Holy Trinity Catholic Church. He was passionate about scuba diving, loved the ocean, especially the Florida Keys, and was an avid Florida Gators fan having graduated from the University of Florida in 1985. Easily, his favorite hobby was supporting his kids at all of their swimming events—he rarely missed a meet.

He is survived by his wife, Chris; children, E.J., Nicholas and Nina and by E.J.'s fiancée, Cara McBroom; his parents, Jose and Lourdes and by his brothers, Jose and Carlos.

A service will be held at Pierce Funeral Home at 6:00 p.m Tuesday, July 26, 2016. The family will receive friends from 5:00 p.m. until service time.

In lieu of flowers donations can be made to CurePSP (<https://give.psp.org/>)

“ My deepest condolences for a life not fully lived to a ripe old age. May the sorrow that you feel now turn to a celebration of his life, his joys, his love, and his essence in the near future. Though we grew up in the same circles, unfortunately, I only knew the Tremols boys from a distance since I was older than them by a long shot. Nonetheless, I was heartbroken to have received the news of Eddy's sudden and unexpected death and wish the family the strength of God's love and peace during such difficult times.

“ Anyone that attended St. Brendan's high school had the privilege of seeing a great love story unfold before our eyes. You will be missed, but never forgotten. Your family will be surrounded with love as you were for your years here on earth. God will continue to bless your family and we all will continue to pray for them as well.

*Sincerely,
Kim Merlo Jones*

“ I knew Ed only 6 short years while working at Bayer. His smile and laugh were infectious. He always made you feel as though you and he were the only two in the room. The world has lost a very beautiful person. His presence will be greatly missed. Farewell my friend. Until we meet again.

Sincerely,
Laura Clark-Kelly

“ Where to begin...

A wonderful friend and colleague with whom I shared many memorable moments at home (when my family lived in Miami ; we'll never forget the paella send-off Chris and Ed gave us as we relocated to Pennsylvania); and during our continuous travels with Berlex/ Bayer across the country.

I recall EJ's pirate themed party that my children attended when they were all kids; I recall Ed finding a restaurant called Havana in downtown Norfolk with wannabe Cuban food; I recall us calling each other as we were trying to come out of Hurricane Andrew;

I recall trying to convince Ed to stay with Berlex and not going back to a competitor. He stayed, and he continued to excel! I recall sharing with him that leaving our comfort zone in Florida and taking on new responsibilities in the Mid Atlantic states would be a good thing... not only for us, but most importantly for our families.

He recognized this.

As a result, he and Chris have graced us all with their beautiful, successful, accomplished family.

I could go on and on...

One memory leads to another.

My dear Chris, EJ, Nicholas, and Nina.

May Our Lord's arms surround you with strength, peace, and love during this difficult time.

Rest assured we are surrounding you with these as well.

Love,

Ronnie and Maria Claudia Almendrales

“ Dear Chris, EJ, Nick & Nina - What a blessing to have known Eddy, such a kind and fun-loving person, the purest kind of guy, and so devoted to all of you. In recent years it was on Facebook that I kept up with all the family's impressive achievements and Eddy's joy in sharing them. It seems like yesterday we were at St. Brendan's High School and Chris was describing to me her first date with Eddy :-) Chris and Eddy were inseparable and a stunningly beautiful couple, so in love for so long. They were a glue that held together our group of friends too. We had such fun together. Chris and Eddy were central figures in my happy high school memories. Rest in eternal peace Eddy, we miss you and pledge to honor you by lifting up the legacy you leave in your beautiful family.
