“ I always called him Mr. Ed when I was around him. He was the most gentle, kind hearted man I have ever known. Very devoted to his wife Catherine and his family. I was so lucky to be a part of their lives and in caring for them both. I always looked forward going there. Ed would always have his game shows on and he played right along with them as if it was him there on TV. He was good at too lol. He was always lucky with his lotto scratch off tickets. But Heaven is lucky now to have him and his wife Catherine as Heavenly Angels!! He got me into buying the lotto tickets too. He would even buy some for me. I truly loved Ed. He was my Buddy and I will miss him dearly. Thank you Ed for accepting me into your life and Catherine and trusting in me to care for you both. I love you Buddy!! Now help me In picking the winning lotto tickets lol!! 😊
