“ In the early 1950's, I grew up living next door to Frank and Alice and a nicer, more gentle man would be hard to find. I have many fond memories from that time. My heart goes out to Alice and the rest of the family.

I am so sorry for the loss of Mr. Haines and my heart and prayers go out to the entire family. Debbie and I have remained friends throughout our adult life. I spent so much time at her parents house that at 61, I still have their number memorized. Mr. and Mrs. Haines were like my 2nd family. God certainly got a great newcomer to his kingdom.
