

Edward Vulchan Kamenski

January 26, 1955 - May 13, 2018

Edward “Kam” Vulchan Kamenski, 63, of Manassas, passed away on Sunday, May 13, 2018, after his courageous and humble battle with cancer.

Kam lit up the room with his bright green eyes and his witty and sarcastic personality. Always an entertainer, Kam was the center of attention at any gathering. If he wasn't making his friends and family laugh, he loved to try and embarrass his wife, Pam, in public. An instigator of shenanigans, lover of laughter, and master of reading people; he had a beautiful mind and generous heart. Kam loved horse racing and playing craps at the casino. His most precious and beloved memories are those he spent with his wife and family.

Among his survivors are his wife of 39 years, Pamela Kamenski; his children, Edward J. Kamenski, Whitney Brletic (J.R.), and Jenna R. Kamenski (Louis Rich); his grandchildren Connor and Madison Ingel; his brothers Thomas H. and Wade Campbell; and his sister Susan Kamenski.

A Celebration of Kam's Life will be held at 10:00 a.m. Saturday, May 19, 2018 at Pierce Funeral Home.

“ Pam, E.J., Jenna, Susan, Tom, & Wade,

Your Pennsylvania "Barr" cousins extend our deepest condolences to your family. Kam was, indeed, a one-of-a-kind guy. He certainly had a bit of the "devil" in him even as a lil boy & perfected that "talent" as he grew into an adult. You all have a plethora of memories of his antics to comfort you during this extremely difficult time.

Blessings, Bonnie, Kathie, & Laurie
