His legacy will live on throughout all the lives he has touched and also in those who were fortunate enough to simply have been graced with his effervescent spirit.

Ted, a Navy Veteran, was an extraordinary pilot who loved his career as a corporate pilot for Danaher Corporation Inc. located at Dulles International Airport. His passion for aviation extended into his personal life where flying for pleasure was a must. Music, comedy and good company were just a few of Ted's many passions. Ted was an exceptional guitarist, singer, and was very skilled in playing the harmonica. Touching many lives and always the "center of attention" he lived his life to the fullest. Ted never knew a stranger. Ted will always be remembered as "The World's Greatest Dad", words often expressed by his daughters. Ted beamed sunshine, warmth and happiness to those around him often seen in his "perfect smile." Ted always could create an atmosphere filled with laughter just by his mere presence. The loss of Ted is indescribable, undefinable, unimaginable? a profound loss of epic proportion.

“ To the Toth Family,
Our family was on Lake Anna at the time of the crash, but we were there to help and have had your family in our thoughts and prayers. When my daughter was trying to comfort your daughter on our boat and my husband and son in law were in the water, everyone was trying so hard to save your beloved husband. May your loving memories help to ease your sorrow as time passes. With our deepest sympathy. Stan and Mary Virginia Polonsky

“ Like the Monahan and Polonsky family, myself, father, and close friend were part of the incredible effort to save your beloved husband and daddy. I was the RN on the scene minutes after the aircraft went down. Lisa, there are no words to describe the colossal effort put forth to save Ted. As a Flight Attendant, I am devastated, I have lost one of my own. As a Registered Nurse, how I wish I could have done more. Heather is an EXTRAORDINARY young woman! Please, if you like, at any time, do not hesitate to contact me. Ted it would have been an honor to know you and to have been a part of your crew. Soar in peace with those shiny new wings my friend...Godspeed.
