

Eileen Joyce Henderson

December 21, 1950 - August 25, 2023

Eileen Joyce Henderson

Eileen J. Henderson, passed away peacefully at Sibley Memorial hospice. She was born December 21st, 1950 in New Jersey to Joseph and Anna Zimecki.

Eileen was a loving wife, mother and beloved friend. She was well known for her compassionate and giving nature. After obtaining her Bachelor's of Psychology from George Mason University, she held many jobs throughout her life. Some of these included working at Truist Bank (formerly known as First Virginia Bank) where she met many life long friends and her spouse, David Henderson. Later on, she used her degree to work as a social worker at various nursing homes, helping many families by bringing them comfort and guidance for their loved ones. Her generous and giving personality helped many people throughout her life.

She is survived by her husband, David, her son Michael, daughter Nicole; her sister Marie Zarpas and brother John "Tink" Zimecki. We are eternally grateful to Mike and Chop Zarpas for their tireless efforts and help during her brief, but sudden departure. We also are very thankful for her large network of family and friends and their support.

She was cremated per her wishes. A celebration of life will be planned for the near future, and further details will be posted later to anyone who wishes to attend.

“ Eileen was a special Lady..Wanting to take care of others. Never wanting to be a burden. Always wanting to please. My words can only go so far in expressing the sadness I feel. What I do remember, and always will, is a person of energy who tried to grab every moment of happiness she could. She always spoke of her family. You could feel the love she felt for them. My heart goes out to David, Michael, Nicole, and everyone that surrounded Eileen and experienced her life. Misty Kuceris

“ Our deepest sympathy on Eileen's passing. She was a very special and caring person, a great friend and neighbor for so many years. So often when we talked, I could tell how much she loved you all. Her goodness will never be forgotten.

“ It is so hard to know what to write when there is so much to say about Eileen. She always had a smile and a kind word for those in our neighborhood. And she was well-loved at the nursing home where she worked and then later at her job in the nursery. When she worked at the nursing home she even volunteered to facilitate visits for people to come to the nursing home to bless the residents. She just shared joy and kindness with so many others. And my prayers are for Dave, Nicole, Michael, and her other family and friends to never forget their special memories of her. I also pray that hearts that hurt so much now would be healed as time goes by.
