Eileen L. Jordan, age 61, passed away on December 17, 2011 in the presence of her daughter and son-in-law, surrounded by love. She was born on February 12th, 1950 in Pottsville PA. Our mother lived for her family and her faith and instilled these values in her children. Eileen was the only girl of seven children. She was an incredible mother, a proud sister and a loyal daughter. She will be met in heaven by her beloved parents Francis and Mary K. Schoenauer and her brothers Tommy and David. She will be profoundly missed by all her family and friends, particularly her three children and their spouses: Cindy Jordan and Anne Sarabia of Tucson AZ; Heather and Mike Oakes of Stafford, VA; and Patrick and Nicole Jordan of Tucson, AZ and her three grandchildren: Zachary, Dylan and Grady. Mom your life was cut too short, we will always love you.

“ What a shock it was to hear my cousin Eileen had died. She was much too young. She was a wonderful loving mother and sister to her brothers. I know everyone will miss her. We always enjoyed seeing her when she was able to get to MA. Rest in Peace, Eileen.
