“ *Mary and family, I'm so sorry for your loss. I remember Elaine as a very spunky, sassy lady who I loved talking with but mainly because I loved hearing her do the talking. I know she will be sorely missed. The site asked me to share a memory but my most vivid one has to do with a sleepover, a bloodcurdling scream in the black of night and all of the Stegner's scrambling around looking to see who had been 'murdered.' :) do you remember? Elaine was so gracious...but firm...no more sleepovers for that one. My sympathy to all of you in this time. I hope all the memories will warm your hearts and help fill that void that's bound to be there. Hugs to all

“ Thinking of a good friend Mary Hoover and her family in the loss of her mother Elaine. I only met her mother a few times over the years when she came to visit. I thought her personality reminded me a lot of you Mary which I loved!! God Bless you and your family.

“ Mom, you are the greatest woman I have ever known, I'm glad that God allowed me to be your daughter. I love you with all my heart and you will be missed more than I can possibly express. I know that you are having a grand reunion with Nanny and Grampy and all those that have been waiting for you with open arms to join them, Richard, Carol, Lee and so many others, but my heart is broken and I am missing you terribly. I love you Mom, always and forever and a day.....until we meet again. Donna
