

Eleanor Lehmer

October 22, 1918 - March 13, 2013

Eleanor L. Lehmer (October 22, 1918- March 13, 2013)

Born Eleanor Lucille Wojtyna in Chicago, Illinois to Pauline and George (Albert) Wojtyna. One of nine children, survived by Gertrude, Cecelia, and Valerie; five children, William E. (Meredith), David J. (Kim), Raymond P. (Viviana), Jeffrey M., Wendy C. Vanover (Vincent Curci); eleven grand children, Michelle, Rachel, Sarah, Ben, David, Holly, Raymond, Mary Katherine, Forrest, Jacob, Stephanie, (predeceased by Grandson Michael Vanover Sr.), seven great grandchildren, Miles, Matteo, Marissa, Ava, Madelynn, Michael Jr. and Rory.

She worked at Western Electric in Chicago during WW II, making communications equipment. She met Edward G. Lehmer ("Bud" a WWII Army Veteran) at a USO Dance in Chicago in 1942 and they corresponded while Ed was overseas with the First Armored Division. They married in 1945 and settled in Muskegon. They later divorced and she went back to work for Scott Paper until 1983 when she retired. She was active at St. Francis De Sales Catholic Church and at her senior center in Muskegon until she moved to Plymouth, Michigan in 2008. In 2012, she relocated to Manassas, Virginia to live with her oldest son and family until her death. She enjoyed dancing, baking her famous banana bread and sharing with all, loved card games, visits with grandchildren, and her dog Charlie.

A Memorial Service will be conducted Saturday, April 6, 2013 at 1 pm at Pierce Funeral Home, 9609 Center Street, Manassas, Virginia at 1 pm.

Tribute Wall

“ 4 months...I just miss you!

Wendy Vanover - August 30, 2013 at 01:47 PM

“ "Perhaps they are not the stars, but rather openings in Heaven where the love of our lost ones pours through and shines down upon us to let us know they are happy." ~unknown

We know you are at peace and watching over us

*Love,
Wen, Vinnie, Michael*

Wendy Vanover - March 29, 2013 at 01:58 PM

“ She will be missed by all that knew her.

Charles and Betsy Matthews - March 29, 2013 at 01:58 PM

“ *Hi Grandma,
The sun is just now shining for the first time today as I write this, just like it was the day you died. I was with a woman yesterday who gave birth to her 7th child, and I thought of you and all your stories of your kids' births. We miss you, but are happy you are on the other side and full of light.*

*xoxo
Michelle*

Michelle Chiafulio - March 29, 2013 at 01:58 PM

MB

“ Keeping everyone in prayer for peace and comfort at this time of sorrow. ”

Merri Busch - March 29, 2013 at 01:58 PM