

Elizabeth Brown

January 20, 1948 - July 15, 2009

Colleen Elizabeth Brown, passed away July 15, 2009 at the Capital Hospice in Arlington, Virginia

Colleen was born in Savannah, Georgia on January 20, 1948 to the late William Joseph Brown, Sr. and late Dorothy Jean Hill Brown. Surviving are her son, James Richard (Ricky) and wife, Laura, and granddaughter, Taylor Brown, all of Manassas; three brothers, William Joseph, Jr. of Woodbridge, James David of Cape Coral, Florida and Robert Platt of Wichita, Kansas and sister, Patricia Ellen Randol of West Haven, Connecticut and their families.

Colleen graduated from Osbourn Senior High School in 1966 then went on to enjoy an independent and spirited life with her many friends. She worked for many years as a hairdresser and office worker at Merchants Tire and later Service Tire. Colleen's life was defined as a surrogate mother to her siblings but her greatest achievement is her caring and loving son and her granddaughter.

A Memorial Service will be held on Saturday, July 18, 2009 at 3:00 PM at Pierce Funeral Home, 9609 Center Street, Manassas, Virginia 20110.

In Lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to: Capital Hospice, 10530 Linden Lake Plaza, Suite 200, Manassas, Virginia 20109 or National Kidney

Foundation of the National Capital Area, Inc., 5335 Wisconsin Avenue, NW
Suite 300, Washington, DC 20015 in loving memory of Colleen Elizabeth
Brown.

“ So sorry about Coleen's passing. I knew her for many years--we worked together many years ago. I was able to visit her twice at the hospital. As I told her, I always liked her. She was a jokester, pulling a prank on someone (never in a mean way), and she loved to laugh.

She was very proud of you Ricky, and of Taylor, and I know she will be missed beyond measure.

May God bless you and comfort you.

“ To all my "Brown" cousins and families: I never got to know Colleen, or even the rest of you, but every time we visited Pennsylvania to see the relatives that still lived there, your names were always mentioned. Stories of the old reunions were told and anything new that was happening with any of you was shared. We spent little time together when we were young, but we still loved you guys, none the less. I'm very saddened and sorry to hear about Colleen. I hope she remembered the good times at Grammy Hill's house. I know I do. My sister Bev is our messenger so keep in touch and stay well. Love and condolences, Happiness and Good Health to all.

Love,

Sandy (Dick) Pagonis,

Your Aunt Sis's youngest daughter, now 61 yrs old.

“ Please accept our condolences on the loss of Colleen. Your family is often in our thoughts and prayers, and never more so than now. We were looking at some old photos of the picnics we went on when we were kids. It brought back many happy memories. I'm so sorry for your loss.

Mom (Aunt Edna) is 93 years old now and just got out of the hospital but is doing very well for her age. Dad (Uncle Bill) passed away two years ago.

Though we are not able to come to the memorial service, please know that we are thinking of you all.

Love and Prayers,
Pat Morris and son, Steve
Bill Hill, Jr.

“ To the family of Colleen Brown. I knew Colleen from working at Merchant's Corp office for several years. I talked with many times while she worked at the Truck Center. She was always so friendly and kind. I will always remember her. God Bless you all and your family at this difficult time.

“ Just a note to say how sorry I was to hear of Collen's death. I was a co-worker of hers when she worked at Merchant's. I was there from 1995 to the closing in 2003.
