“ There is a hole in my life that my dear friend used to fill with so much laughter. I will cherish forever the memories of the Fairs, game nights, the adventures of Lucy and Ethel, sharing all things WOO. Mostly I will miss the comfort of knowing that Lizzy always had my back. Lizzy loved so many, and so many loved her, but she still made every one of us feel special. Bon voyage, my friend.

“ Lizzie,
You were my ?buddy? and a friend to so many others. Your kindness and thoughtfulness to those around you, including strangers was witnessed by many. The nights you?d come into Bungalows with your ?extra? breads and share with anyone there - was an amazing testimony to your sharing spirit. The squirrel feeder that you quietly placed on my door step a few months ago, along with ears of corn, will always remind me and my squirrel friend of you?My buddy, the tiny dancer Lizzie “ Liz, You were always so full of life. It is hard to imagine you gone. May God bless you and keep you in His loving home. I will miss seeing you in the neighborhood. I know you dearly loved your son, Michael, and Richard. They will both miss you terribly. My condolences to your whole family. How lucky you were to have so many sisters and a brother to love, not to mention your friends. We will all miss you.

“ Liz put up a brave fight and has gone to her reward - too soon for us, but she now has rest.
Will always remember the beautiful wedding cake she made for Sabra and Steve. And her quiet but telling presence at a number of get-together's I attended.
With so many friends, she will leave a hole in a lot of lives, but may that hole be filled wih beautiful memories.
Our sympathy and prayers go out to Richard and Michael and the family.
Rest in God's arms.

“ *Somewhere over the rainbow
Way up high,
There's a land that I heard of
Once in a lullaby.*

*Somewhere over the rainbow
Skies are blue,
And the dreams that you dare to dream
Really do come true.*

*Someday I'll wish upon a star
And wake up where the clouds are far
Behind me.
Where troubles melt like lemon drops
Away above the chimney tops
That's where you'll find me.*

*Somewhere over the rainbow
Bluebirds fly.
Birds fly over the rainbow.
Why then, oh why can't I?*

*If happy little bluebirds fly
Beyond the rainbow
Why, oh why can't I?*

Will see you again Liz ... love and hugs
