

Elizabeth McCoy Dunbar

May 5, 1931 - June 30, 2016

Elizabeth McCoy Dunbar, 85, died peacefully at her Gainesville home on Thursday, June 30, 2016.

Mrs. Dunbar was born in Pikeville, KY, a daughter of Finney and Nora “Johnson” McCoy. She was proud of her heritage and being a coal miner’s daughter. She worked for the Washington Post for over 20 years and was the first woman to work on production floor as a lithographic stripper. One of her greatest joys was spending time with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

She is preceded in life by her late husband Charles Stanley Dunbar. She is survived by her children, Deniece Smoot and Charles “Larry” Dunbar; her sisters, Myrtle Taylor, Verlie Slater and Dorothy Mays; two grandchildren Brian Smoot and Keith Smoot and three great-grandchildren Rhiannon, David and Lucas.

The family will receive friends on Wednesday, July 6, from 6 to 8 p.m. at Pierce Funeral Home. Funeral Services will be held at 10 a.m. on Thursday at the funeral home with burial to follow at Stafford Memorial Park.
