“ Renae was the first neighbor to come over and welcome me into the neighborhood when I first moved in 12 years ago. She wasn't shy. She bounced right up to me (and I mean bounced) and introduced herself with a big warm smile and a handshake sharing her many stories and insights on our neighborhood. .It was soon obvious she didn't miss much that went on around her. I soon realized she had an equally big warm and kind heart. She had a quick wit and sense of humor. Renae had a vitality, zest and passion for life that made her seem bigger than life somehow. She was a woman who loved her husband and her son Taylor and she had no problem telling you how great they were. Yep! She bragged on "her guys" just a little sometimes. She soon loved Rachel her daughter-in-law just as much. The devotion I saw from her family in caring for her so lovingly in these last few years had to mean the world to her and says a lot about the type of love and devotion she inspired. Rest in peace Renae. You will be missed.

Never doubt Steve, Taylor and Rachel that you will be prayed for daily. I know this is a hard season for you but I have faith that the firm loving foundation your family built together will give you the strength you need to go forward from sorrow back into sunlight as Renae would have wanted. When we lose someone, their memory truly does become a precious treasure to us. Hold fast to all the good memories you've shared and may they bring you peace, comfort and joy. Renae was truly a treasure and her family was her treasure.

“ Renea, We go way back in time, but you have always been there when I was down and out. I will miss you and our get together with both laughter and tears. You are not in pain any longer so keep a watch over Steve and Taylor, they will miss you very much, but they to are in pain because you are gone. The Good Lord will help you to look over your loved ones. Rejoice with your mom, dad and Tammy. We are forever friends! I will miss you my friend!!!

“ Renea, We love you and will miss you always. Dad always loved to play his guitar and listen to you sing. You always loved to sing and go upon stage with Dad and his band. I love you and hate that you had to leave us so soon. I know that God called and you answered but I will always miss you. You told me not long back that you missed and cried for Tammy every day. Well you don't have to cry any more. I will think of and miss you always. Just rest now! Your sister Kathy
