

Elizabeth Neave Yeager

September 4, 1932 - December 15, 2025

Elizabeth Catherine (Neave) Yeager, age 93, died on December 15, 2025, at her home in Haymarket, Virginia while receiving hospice services.

She was born on September 4, 1932, in Portsmouth, VA to Carrie Lee (Bass) and Edward Neave. She was a member of the Nansemond Indian Nation of Virginia.

In 1951 she married the love of her life, William Enoch Yeager. They lived in Paris, France while he was stationed there with Air Force, before returning to U.S., eventually making their home in Northern Virginia to raise their children, Drew Avery and Lisa Renee. They shared 69 years together before William's death in 2021.

Elizabeth enjoyed gardening, selling Avon, and singing in the choir at Sudley Methodist Church. In her later years, she enjoyed receiving flowers and gifts in her favorite color-purple and listening to Gospel music, with her beloved toy poodle always at her side.

Elizabeth is survived by her son, Drew A. Yeager and her daughter, Lisa R. Yeager.

She will be forever missed and always in our hearts.

A funeral service will be held at Pierce Funeral Home on Monday, December 29, 2025, at 11:00 AM, followed by a graveside service Sudley United Methodist Cemetery.

“ I first met Elizabeth at Sudley United Methodist Church where my family and I attended the Annual Turkey Oyster Dinner. She was one of the waiters and I find her to be a delightful lady. After we became members of the church, I joined the choir. I got to know her better as she was also a member of the choir. She became my "Avon Lady" and also a parent as her daughter, Lisa, was one of my students at Stonewall Jackson High School. I enjoyed her friendship and found her to be a very kind and Christian Lady. My sympathy to Drew and Lisa at the loss of a loving Mother.
