“ I met Elma through my marriage to Jan who is Elma's niece. Elma was a kind, compassionate, giving person who always remembered special occasions, our sons birthdays when they were small and now that they are all grown men with families, she always took time to ask about them and the grandchildren. Elma loved to travel and one of her favorite areas was the Shenandoah Valley in Virginia. Jan and I always loved hearing her stories about the places she had been. She was also very generous donating to charities in remembrance of her sister and brothers and others who had gone before her. She was a lady who will be greatly missed.

“ Although we hadn't seen each other in several years, I will always hold Elma close to my heart. Tough days would come when I had to live with my parents during my transition back to PA, but then Elma would call my mom and ask about my daughter, Savannah, and ask for her picture. She said and did the little things that would always make you smile. That's just the kind of person Elma was. Always caring; always the one to brighten a day. And now she's in the most Glorious place there is. We'll miss you, but we know you have it better than us now and we'll see you again someday.

“ Hello, I'm a neighbor who heard about your family's loss and I wanted to offer my deep condolences by sharing a scripture to bring hope and comfort, found at Revelation 21:3,4 which reads: With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say: "Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with, and they will be his peoples. And God himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. Again my condolences.

“ Elma was always very caring and gracious. She always remembered her family, even the little ones she had yet to see. Elma will always be close to me. My mom thought of her often and viewed her as her role model, which gave a lasting impression. I wish she could have met my children, but even though she didn't, she always asked about them. Elma is in a better place...
