Chris and I, respectfully extend our heartfelt condolences, to the family of Mr. 'Bob' Wiser. We both share the sentiments of the Wright Family in that he was indeed a 'hero' for serving our country, but for some, he was our 'personal hero' as well.

Mr. Wiser was a businessman, a philanthropist & a friend to many, but also, a brother, a father, a grandfather and uncle, who loved his family very much. His nurturing & loving spirit for his family shined, and we pray that knowing how much he loved them, each will find comfort during this difficult time.

Mr. Wiser didn't seek fame for his kindness & generosity, or for the positive impact he made, but he is deserving of the highest recognition possible, and so shall he be rewarded.

We're put on this earth to please God, & fulfill a purpose. By doing so, God promises us that we will be rewarded in Heaven. Mr. Wiser, enjoy your rewards, and may you know how very much you were loved, and will sorely be missed.

Your Friends, Chris & Wanda McClean
