“Mrs. Langehough is fondly remembered for her sensitivity and kindness to me as the childhood friend of Susan. She was an excellent seamstress and I was the beneficiary of lovely hand-me-downs from Susan. My father despised charity, but allowed me to accept the dresses and I wore them proudly for many years. I recall with a smile how she brought a thermos of hot chocolate to Susan and I when we played outside in the snow. I made a point to do the same for my own son when he was small. Mrs. Langehough always welcomed me warmly into her home and I will always cherish her memory. She recognized talents I didn't know I had and gave me self-esteem I lacked.

I send my deepest condolences to the family of Mrs. Langehough, a wonderful woman I will never forget.
