“ Mom, no more sorrow and no more pain. How wonderful that today you are now at home in the house of the Lord where there is no sickness. It has been a long journey for you and I your daughter had a difficult time seeing you in your condition because you were always a strong independent woman. You will be missed dear mother, but I no longer have to see you in that terrible condition and have my heart break that I could not do anything to make it better for you. I love you Mom, Mary Ann
