“ I have many memories of the Buchanan reunions and Uncle Junior. He was a character. Always funny, always cutting up and chasing us kids with a cup of water. Several weeks ago, I spoke with him on the phone. He confirmed to me that he believed in Jesus, had repented of his sins and had asked Jesus to save him. A few weeks later he was baptized. That conversation was short, but will always be with me.

The Buchanan family is gathering in heaven. They are already having a great time and one-by-one, we who have put our faith in Jesus, will soon join them.

May God bless and keep this family in His care until we all meet in heavens bright city.
