

Endi B. Nolasco

April 25, 1997 - February 12, 2022

Endi B. Nolasco, 24, Manassas, Va., passed away unexpectedly February 12, 2022.

Endi will be forever missed by the love of his life, Jennifer (Correa) Nolasco. They met in 2015 on the wrestling mat in Highschool and married January 31, 2018 at the Onslow County Courthouse in Jacksonville, North Carolina. Endi served in the U.S. Marine Corps for 4 years. During his service, the family lived in North Carolina. His duties also took him throughout the North Pacific and Arctic. He served six months in East Asia visiting Japan and South Korea and six months in Norway . After leaving the service honorably, he was employed by a motorcycle dealership as a technician where he found his new love for riding.

Endi is survived by his wife Jennifer; son Endi Jr. and fur babies, Kilo and Maya.

He was preceded in death by his brother, Israel Nolasco.

He was born in Fairfax, VA. on April 25, 1997, graduated high school in 2016 and immediately enlisted in the U.S. Marine Corps (2017 – 2021).

Endi was a true lover of nature, enjoying the outdoors, Hunting, fishing and boating.

We will be celebrating Endi's life at the Church of Brethren February 18th 7

PM for an overnight vigil. On February 19th at 10:30 AM we will have a funeral ceremony and the procession will begin at 1 PM to the Stonewall Memory Gardens for the Veteran Burial Ceremony at 2 PM.

“ That forever smile of yours Endi will never be forgotten. You were always one of our favs from the first time we met you in the wrestling room. You will always be remembered every time Kirby makes banana pudding as you ask for it at every wrestling tournament. God Bless your wife and family and that precious son of yours ❤️ Gone way to soon 🙏
