

Eric James D'Abadie

October 18, 1962 - March 3, 2018

Eric James D'Abadie found peace and went to Heaven on March 3, 2018 at age 55 in Manassas, VA.

Eric was a loving and devoted husband, father, brother, uncle, and friend. He was a family man who loved fishing on his boat, especially in the Chesapeake Bay, vacationing on the coast of Florida, gardening, bird watching, grilling, and keeping his vehicles in tip top shape. He was a hardworking man and a proud member of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, Local Union 26.

He will forever be remembered by his wife of twenty-five years, Sharon Lee D'Abadie; and two precious daughters, Jennifer Annette Papp, husband Andrew, and Kayleigh Hope D'Abadie.

Eric will be sadly missed by his seven siblings; Terri, Jeanine (Amir), Doug, Sylvia, Jeff, Jason, and Sarah, G-maw Doris, his sister-in-law's, Anita and Gale (Tom) and countless nieces and nephews and their families. He was preceded in death by his Mother, Sylvia Ann Judice-D'Abadie, and his Father, Eugene Carroll D'Abadie.

Eric's family will receive friends from 2-3p.m. on Saturday, March 17, 2018 at Pierce Funeral Home, 9609 Center Street, Manassas, VA 20110. A memorial “ Jennifer Papp and Kayleigh D'Abadie thank you for sharing your Dad with me all these years. From teaching me to drive stick in grandma Hancock's field when I was like 9 to having camp outs in the back yard, too many road trips and vacation memories to count, boat outings and lots of great fishing to a lifetime of love. I appreciate what he did for me in my life. It's no secret that Don and Eric were like 2nd fathers to me. His loss is one that will be felt for a very very long time. I hope that I can love you through it the way he has loved me throughout my life. I love you guys so very much.

“ Eric has been a good neighbor. He would bring out his snow blower when it snowed and help do the sidewalks. In the spring and summer would be in his yard or messing with his cars. he loved his cars and his boat Easy going friendly guy always stopped and had a chat . He will be missed . Our thoughts and prayers go out to his wife and girls.

“ I was Kayleigh's teacher when she was at Loch Lomond. She will always be a student that I remember because of her great spirit and good nature. I could tell from the beginning that she came from a good family. After 15 years of teaching, I see the importance of good parents in a child's life. Kayleigh was very blessed to have such a loving father and my heart breaks for her loss. My thoughts and prayers are with Eric's entire family, but he gave the world Kayleigh and for that I am grateful for the life he led.

“ My little brother Eric was, above all, a hard worker, and family man. From a very young age he began working, and never stopped. In his early twenties he purchased a small home, and later came the big toys....all of which he took great pride in. As a young boy he was one that I looked forward to caring for. There was a special bond between Eric and I, and at one time he told me that I was like a mother to him. My parents were busy working hard and raising eight children. In those days, older siblings were expected help out with the younger ones. That bond held us close until his passing. He told me recently that he knew Sharon was the one for him when he saw how she cared for Jennifer. His love and devotion for Sharon, Jennifer, and Kayleigh was a driving force in his life. He was a man who I admired and looked up to. My little brother who I will always love, and hold deep in the depths of my heart.

“ This breaks my heart in so many ways. Derek went missing on March 17. I know the pain of a loved one choosing to leave you. Eric was a gentle kind soul and loved his family. I enjoyed friendly conversations with him at family functions. May you all find peace through your future journey.
