

Erick Thomas Klieber

November 24, 1986 - August 5, 2014

ERICK THOMAS KLIEBER, On August 5, 2014 our beloved son, brother, and friend left this world for a new adventure. Erick blessed us all with beautiful energy that will never be matched. He touched us with his charisma and loyalty to his family and friends. He inspired us with his knowledge, he always knew a way to make something better. His caring nature comforted us all and he always provided us a shoulder to cry on. He dominated any endeavor, and left no knowledge undiscovered or unshared to those around him. The radiance of Erick's smile invited any and all into his heart and home.

Friend to many, loved by all, missed forever.

Hail to the Redskins!

Erick is survived by his mother, Dorothy E. Klieber of Manassas, Virginia; father, Thomas J. Klieber of Alexandria, Virginia; brother, Bryan T. Klieber of Manassas, Virginia.

“ Erick was part of large community of running friends - collectively known as "the hash". every time we say him pull up to the start there was always a big round of "hey look who's here!!!!" and a great big smile on his face as he was greeted warmly with lots of hugs and "good to see you!" by everyone he knew. he had a beautiful smile and a generous spirit and we all soooo enjoyed his company!! he was well loved by his hash "family" and we hope his family knows that he will be missed terribly in our little running community. Our deepest condolences and lots of love to his mom and the rest of his family - erick "pee wee" was well loved by all of us and he will be missed.
