“ Many years ago, I taught Kurt at Stonewall before his untimely death. Then I met Erna. She was always ready to serve, always in the front pew on Sunday, always a lady of steadfast faith. It was an honor to know her. Carol Blauvelt

“ Erna was one of my first friends when my family moved to Manassas and I met her at church. She immediately got me involved in the altar guild. Erna was a good friend, loving and caring and kind and blessed with the grace of her faith.
