

Estrella Gabrie-Garcia

September 19, 1933 - October 9, 2023

Estrella Gabrie-Garcia, 90, of Manassas, Va., formerly of Emerson, N.J., passed away October 9th, 2023. She was born in San Pedro Sula, Honduras, on September 19, 1933, to Nicholas and Elena (Paranky) Gabrie. Known as “Mami,” “Tia Mami,” “Lady E,” or “Mrs. G.,” she was the youngest of eleven siblings. She is predeceased by her parents and all her loving brothers and sisters: Victoria Mansoor, Adela Gabrie, Jorge Gabrie, Alexandra Gabrie, Constantino Gabrie, Julia Yacaman, Julio Gabrie, Ernesto Gabrie, Carim Gabrie, and Elena Acosta. She is also predeceased by her husband of 31 years, Raul Garcia. She is survived by her daughter, Dr. Lisette Garcia (Craig Bennett), and her son, Andre Garcia.

Estrella studied at Instituto Oficial José Trinidad Reyes and in 1954 she immigrated to New York City with her mother and sister, Alexandra. While in New York she had the opportunity to pursue her passion of acting, appearing in several Spanish language tele-novelas before becoming a licensed real estate agent in New Jersey and founding American Homestead Realty. She would return to her acting career later in life and appeared as an extra in various programs filmed in the New York metropolitan area including The Sopranos and Law and Order: SVU. Estrella was a proud member of SAG/AFTRA. A creative person at heart, who loved to entertain everybody she also wrote poetry and recited it for family members every opportunity she had, and she enjoyed reciting her poems at various events and libraries across New Jersey, with the performing group Poet X.

Estrella was also an active member of the Emerson community and an advocate for girls' sports. She is fondly remembered as "Mrs. G" to the girls she managed in the Emerson softball league and Andre and Lisette's friends from Emerson JR/SR High School. Early in life she received the nickname "Mami", what started as a childhood prank would eventually define who she would become. She welcomed all with a warm heart, her cheerful demeanor, and was always ready with a happy smile for everyone. She truly was a mom to all and knew how to light up a room.

We remember Estrella for her fun-loving spirit and the knack she had for making everyone around her happy. “ I just discovered that Estrella passed away at 90. She was a talented poet and mentor. Her writings seemed effortless and cultured. Estrella was a beautiful light to me. Her gentle smile offered a genuine emotion. I knew she relocated to Virginia to be with her daughter's familia. Godspeed mi amiga.

“ Our deepest Condolences to Andre and Lisette. I remember when we first moved to Emerson, my daughter Linda signed up for softball. Estrella was a coach and welcomed us with her friendly smile. When the team had a mother/daughter game, I said I've never played softball, don't know what to do, Estrella gave me a quick little training session, and I played great and even got a hit. I really had never played sports, except for ping pong, so this was a real treat for me. I never forgot that and I don't think she did either, anytime I met her at a store, or in the park, she was always smiling and very friendly. May God be holding you in his arms, dear Estrella
