“ Rose & Family,
Everyone who knew Eugene loved him. He was such a quiet, good hearted person, he was always there to help someone in need whether he knew them or not. He always helped with the food collection for the church, also the Christmas presents for the children. He enjoyed Rose's tea parties as this is where a lot of people in the park stopped to visit. He also liked to fish and play poker. We had to learn from Eugene what "checking the bulletin board meant".

Eugene was also the resident awning Czar. When the weather was going to be bad he always reminded us to put up our awnings. He also put up awnings for those who would have had a hard time doing it themselves. We will miss Eugene, however we will always have our own wonderful memories of him. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all.
Sincerely, Jim & Martha

“ I will remember Eugene with the greatest fondness. Whenever my parents needed help with something mechanical - and that was fairly often - Eugene was always the one they called. It he came to our rescue on several occasions. We were about a half generation apart and though I didn't know Eugene well, I knew he had a strong work ethic and sensed he had very little patience for those not willing to work as hard. He was very kind to our family and was always someone we could depend on for the right advice. Though we lost touch over the years, his wonderful qualities will never be forgotten.
