“ I have alot of memories of Kim and her mom and me and my dad growing up in Stonington together during high school. Boy, we sure did give them alot to stress out about. I remember Mrs. Buchanan's love she had for her children- always wanting to do anything that she could for them, she loved her children and grandchildren more than life itself. She was such a loving and unselfish soul and I am so glad that I had the opportunity to know her and make memories with her. My heartfelt sympathy to you, Kim and Mark and to your families. My heart aches for you.

“ *To the Buchanan Family:
My thoughts and prayers go with each of you at this most difficult time. I knew Jean from back in the late 60's early 70's as my neighbor and friend living on King George Dr. Our daughters were pals and played together all the time. She was a wonderful person and lots of fun to be around. Sadly, I have not seen her in many years but I feel blessed to have known her. Kim & Mark.....you had a sweet mom who loved you very much.
Loving thoughts,
